The Royals' 53rd Spring Training season in club history will be their 19th in Surprise, Ariz.

The Royals and Texas Rangers share a $48 million, 10,500-seat multi-purpose Recreation and Major League Spring Training Campus on land owned by the City of Surprise. In addition, the city is using the facilities for adult and youth recreation programs, community events and programs, special events and meeting facilities.

The stadium complex and baseball practice fields are incorporated into a master-planned municipal center, including administrative offices, recreation/aquatic center, 23,000-square-foot library and 35-40 acre passive park.

In 2015, the Royals complex underwent an $8-million renovation, adding approximately 14,000-square feet to the facility. The project included expanding the clubhouse, coaches' locker room, training and dining facilities, while giving the club six additional offices on site.

Surprise is approximately 35 minutes northwest of Phoenix, past Sun City West off Highway 60. The complex is located on 125 acres in the vicinity of Bullard Avenue and Greenway Road.

Populous (formerly HOK), an internationally-renowned Kansas City architectural firm devoted to creating exceptional sports facilities, was designated to design the facility.

Groundbreaking took place with Hall of Famers George Brett and Nolan Ryan in attendance on May 21, 2001. The facility was dedicated during a special ceremony and community celebration attended by members of the Royals and Rangers on December 7, 2002. The two teams played the first game at the complex on February 27, 2003, with the Royals coming away with a 6-3 win.

The Royals have won the unofficial Cactus League title three times, their first season in Arizona in 2003, 2011 and 2013.
